Roblox has been criticized for allowing other companies to make games on their site such as "Mining Simulator", which is a game that contains copyrighted material from BeamNG.drive, and "Brain Simulator", which is a clear clone of Brain Cube (which was also created by the same person who created Brain Simulator), and copyrighted material from several other games such as Robloxian Highschool and Backyard Zombies.

Builders Club Premium can be used in games greatly increasing the amount of Robux and/or XP a player earns by a given amount. If used, then Builder's Club is required to play those games. There are two types of premium features: content premium and currency premium. Content Premiums typically involves a single item or feature that changes the game mechanic, such as more life points and/or more room to build, or increased maximum health for monsters. Currency Premiums usually involve the addition of new items to the game that are only available through favorable conditions (for example, allowing players to purchase a specific item for Robux). Some Currency Premiums can also require membership in Builders Club.

On May 16th, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they were updating their "Terms of Service" section of the website to disallow using custom models or code to explicitly gain any sort of advantage in-game. They also block users from uploading custom model and code files.[20]

I don't really have an answer for you, but I'm sure this is a problem that other people have as well. I think the game needs to be made less serious because people will not want to spend money on fake money (robux) if they know there's no real value behind those items they purchased with their fake money. The best way to accomplish this would be to make hats, shirts, etcetera for gamers who spend more than a certain amount of money.
